Sue has been a dressage judge since 1982. She upgraded to List One in 2004 and regularly judges at British Dressage Regional, Winter and Summer National Championships. She is also an FEI Candidate Judge for Para-Equestrian Dressage.

Following the great success of our first Introduction to Dressage evening with Sue Petty in July, we are holding two more for those who would like to start judging, but are not confident to offer their services without some guidance. They will also be a refresher for those already judging at the lower levels.

During the evening, and using horse and rider 'guinea pigs', Sue will discuss the judge's responsibility; explain the Scales of Training; and explain how to recognise the basic paces and identify the correct way of going for horses competing at Preliminary and Novice level.

Please reserve places @ £8.00 each for the Judge Training Evening on Tuesday 12 October.

Please reserve places @ £8.00 each for the Judge Training Evening on Tuesday 16 November.
